Numb. 1765

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday October 16. to Thursday October 19 1682.

Stockholme, Sept. 23.

WE are expecting here the Sieur Brandt, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburg; many are impatient till he arrives, because of their great curiosity to know what he comes to propose in this conjuncture of Affairs. The Courier which the Sieur Basin, the French Ambassador, sent to France, on occasion of the dispute about the Ceremonies of his publick Reception and Audience, is come back, so that we shall now quickly know what Orders he has received in this matter; but in the mean time we are assured that this Court will not depart from the form and methods which have been always practised here in like cases. The 14th Instant arrived here an Ambassador from Moscovy; he and all his Attendants are in close Mourning: he has not yet had his Audience of the King, so that we know not the business he comes about, but imagine it to be only a Compliment upon the Death of the late Czar, and the accession of the Czars, that now Reign, to the Crown.

Turin, Octob. 3. The Duke of Savoy is so well recovered that he begins to appear publickly, which fills this Court and Country with an universal Joy. The Duke of Cadaval pursuant to the Orders he has received from the Prince-Regent of Portugal, will part from hence in few days: The Duke has presented him with his Picture set with Diamonds, to the value of 1500 Pistols, and the Dutchess has given him a Ring worth 1000 Pistols. The Duke has likewise made the Envoy of Portugal a Present of 500 Pistols, and has given 800 Pistols to the Admiral of the Fleet, 400 to the Vice-Admiral, 250 to each of the Officers that were to have attended his Highness, 60 to every Voluntier, and 10000 Pistols to be distributed among the Officers and Seamen of the Fleet.

Vienna, Octob. 8. Our Letters from Hungary inform us, That the Turks and Transilvanians were retired, having only left a Body of 10000 Men with Count Teckeley, who seems at present very desirous of a Cessation of Arms, and had sent to General Caprara to propose one, but it's said that General answered, That when he had finish'd his Campaign, as Count Teckeley had done, a Proposition like this would be more seasonable, however directed him to make his application to the Emperor. Their Imperial Majesties have been here to take their leaves of the Duke and Dutchess of Neubourg, who are returned home, as likewise of the Duke of Lorrain, and the Queen Dowager of Poland, who are going back to Tyrol, and this day their Majesties returned to Eberstorf, where they will continue till the 14th or 15th of this Month. The Moneys which Count Teckeley has caused to be Coined has on one side a Hand with a naked Sable in it, with this Inscription, Pro Deo & Patria, and on the other side his Effigies, with these words, Emericus Comes Teckeley, Dux Hungarorum. The Rebels have attacked a small place belonging to Count Palfi, in which were 150 Men, who have quitted the Town, and are retired into the Castle, which they still defend.

Vienna, Octob 11. To morrow the Duke of Lorrain and his Wife, the Queen Dowager of Poland, part from hence for Tyroll. Two days since arrived here an Envoy from Moscovy, with a Train of about 20 Persons. Yesterday were sent from hence for Hungary 40 Brass Boats, for the use of the Imperial Army in the Passage of Rivers. Yesterday we recieved Letters from the Camp of General Caprara, Dated the eighth Instant, which give an account, That the Army continued Encamped within three Miles of Trenchin on the Waag, and that General Caprara intended to march the next day towards the Rebels, who were Posted near the Berg-Towns; That Count Teckeley had sent a Detachment to Lewents, and that upon their approach, the Horse in Garison there, who were all Hungarians, had revolted, so that it was feared that place would fall into the Enemies hands; That the Turks were encamped near Agria, and that the Transilvanians lay likewise Encamped in a Body by themselves. Here is arrived an Express, sent by Count Teckeley, with Letters desiring a Cessation of Arms in order to a Treaty. The Militia of Hungary, commanded by the Palatine of that Kingdom, continue to commit great disorders.

Francfort, Octob, 15. The Deputies of the Empire, after having had several meetings upon the late Declaration of the French Ambassadors, did the 13th Instant resolve, That the Deputies of Ments, as Directors of their Assembly, should represent to the States of the Empire assembled at Ratisbonne, That the Deputies at the Conferences held here, not being sufficiently instructed to return an Answer to the Declaration made by the French Ambassadors, they had thought fit, that no time might be lost, to communicate the same to the Dyet, that they may return a speedy Answer thereunto: And the next Morning an Express was sent from hence to Ratisbonne, with this Dispatch. From Wirtsburg, where Prince Waldeck now is, they write, That the Circle of Franconia have resolved to encrease their Forces, that they may be in a condition to make good their late Alliance with the Emperor.

Brussels, Octob. 20. The French Troops in the new Conquests, both Horse and Foot, are marching towards Luxemburg, and at Metz and Thionville the French are providing Cannon and other necessaries for a Siege. The Sieur de Prado, and the Sieur d'Aefferden, late Secretaries to the Prince of Parma, have both obtained their Liberty, but on this condition, That the Sieur Prado is to continue in this place, and the Sieur Aefferden is to remain in the Cloister, out of which he was taken, till farther Order. We have advice, That 600 Spaniards